Colony Anne Rivers Siddons

Upon hearing of the recent passing of my all-time favorite author, Anne Rivers Siddons, I knew that it was time to re-explore her many works. My all-time favorite of hers is Outer Banks, but for some reason, Colony spoke to me as the first on my list to read again. And it did not disappoint in any way, shape or form.

If it's gothic, Siddons (Outer Banks, King's Oak, etc.) can do it, or so it would appear in this latest novel destined for commercial success. In it, she takes her gifts for melodrama and tangling family trees up north, to a summer colony for Boston Brahmins on the coast of Maine, called simply ``Retreat." But Siddons's heroine is a southerner, and on her she demonstrates one of her best ...
