National Guard Heroes You Should Know - My Hero Crate

Joining the military doesn't entitle you to any special consideration. It's your actions while in the military and out that determine your heroic status. I earned an Army Commendation Medal with Valor when I was enlisted- basically for not running away when I was under fire. I still don't think I was a hero, I was just doing my job.

Soldiers aren't really "Heroes" : unpopular opinion

Joining The Military Doesn't Make You A "Hero." I think it's ridiculous, and somewhat dangerous, the way Americans -- in this day and age -- put members of the armed forces on pedestals simply because they have chosen to enlist in the military.
